and Mrs.S.A.Jamdar- Member (CPO)].

1] Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission, is, constituted u/s. 82 of Electricity Act 2003 (36/2003). Hereinafter for the sake of brevity referred as 'MERC'. This Consumer Grievance Redressal Forum has been established as per the notification issued by MERC i.e. "Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission (Consumer Grievance Redressal Forum & Ombudsman) Regulation 2006” to redress the grievances of consumers vide powers conferred on it by Section 181 read with sub-section 5 to 7 of section 42 of the Electricity Act, (36/2003). Hereinafter it is referred as ‘Regulation’. Further the regulation has been made by MERC i.e. ‘Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission. Hereinafter referred as ‘Supply Code’ for the sake of brevity. Even, regulation has been made by MERC i.e. ‘Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission (Standards of Performance of Distribution Licensees, Period for Giving Supply & Determination of Compensation) Regulations, 2014.’ Hereinafter referred ‘SOP’ for the sake of convenience (Electricity Supply Code and other conditions of supply) Regulations 2014’.

2] The facts of the grievance application are that—

The contention of the consumer is that it has applied to the Licensee on 13/5/2015 for refund of S.D. amount, after following a due procedure and completing all the formalities.

3] The consumer further submitted that despite his compliance Licensee had not refunded its S.D. amount within the stipulated time, hence consumer is entitled for interest.

4] The contention of the consumer is that for getting the S.D. refunded, consumer approached to the concerned Officials of the Licensee for several times, but Licensee failed to do so.

5] It is pleaded by the consumer that as per the MERC Regulation (SOP) 2014 Appendix A – Clause 8 (ii) it was mandatory on the part of the Licensee to refund the SD to the consumer within a period of thirty (30) days for closure of account. According to the consumer, it made an application to the Licensee on 13/5/2015 and as per the procedure Licensee was bound to refund the SD amount to the consumer on or before 13/6/2015. However, Licensee did not refund the SD amount till the date which is not correct as per the MERC directives .Such being the position, consumer claimed for SOP.

6] It is the submission of the consumer that though as per the directions of the Forum consumer approached to IGRC, no remedy / relief was provided to him. Consumer, therefore, approached to the Forum with the following prayers—

- 1] Kindly arrange to issue an order for refund of security deposit along with interest at the earliest of above consumer.
- 2] Kindly arrange to issue an order for compensation as per SOP Regulations item Sr. No. 8 (ii) of Appendix-A.

7] Consumer also submitted that as on 25/9/2017 SD reflecting on MSEDCL portal is Rs.Nil and credit amount is reflecting as Rs.9450/- . Hence the claim of the Licensee regarding arrears of Rs.95/- is not correct.

8] On receiving the grievance, it's copy along with it accompaniments sent to the Nodal Officer vide letter No. EE/CGRF/Kalyan/231 dated 19/5/2017. In response to it Licensee appeared but in writing no reply has been filed by the Licensee. Licensee verbally submitted that it will show detailed calculation of recovery to C.R., and after verification by C.R. he will inform to the Forum by mail.

9] After going through the arguments made by both the sides and on perusal of the record, we have observed that—a] Consumer had given application to the Licensee for refund of S.D. on 13/5/2015.

b] Record shows that SD amount of Rs.14,500/- towards SD is not still received to the consumer.

- c] Licensee had retained the SD amount without any legal right.
- d] The electricity bill dated 25/9/2017 on record shows Rs.9450/- credit amount which is still lying with the Licensee. So claim of the Licensee regarding arrears of Rs.95/- is not valid.
- e] Licensee failed to refund SD to the consumer within a stipulated time laid down by MERC Regulation 2014. Hence, consumer is entitled for interest on SD amount along with SOP as per the provision laid down in Appendix – A Clause 8(ii) which reads as under:
 “Time period for other services from the date Rs.100 per week or part thereof for delay of application:

8. Other Services

- 8(ii) Closure of account. Time period for payment of final dues to consumer from the date of receipt of application for closure of account.
- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Thirty (30) days | (Clause 1 cities and Urban Area). |
| Forty five (45) days (Rural Areas). | |

- f] Licensee also failed to contradict / contest the claim of the consumer. Even no proper justification is produced / submitted by Licensee regarding the claim of consumer for credit amount reflecting in the electricity bill dated 25/9/2017 though sufficient time was given.

10] Taking into consideration, all the above facts, we are of the opinion that Licensee has not refunded the SD amount to the consumer within a prescribed time laid down by Hon’ble MERC, hence consumer is entitled for interest on the SD amount along with SOP as per the provision .

This matter could not be decided within a stipulated time because both parties have to produce some documents.

Hence the order.

ORDER

- 1] Grievance application of consumer is hereby allowed.

- 2] Licensee is directed to refund the amount of Rs.14500/- towards S.D. amount to the consumer by cheque.
- 3] Licensee is directed to calculate the interest amount from 13/6/2015 till the final date of refund and pay to the consumer by cheque.
