2] During the hearing of this matter, it revealed that present grievance application has been filed by Shri Parshuram Daryappa Waghmare, who is not the consumer. It is further revealed that the previous owner Mr. Shirsat from whom Mr. Waghmare has purchased the property, had the connection in his name till it was permanently disconnected. The applicant Shri Waghmare has not even applied for fresh connection in his name at the said premises. The present application is made in the name of previous owner Shri Shirsat, but signed by Shri Waghmare. This by itself is sufficient to dismiss the grievance. Further Shri Waghmare who has approached this Forum is neither a consumer nor the prospective consumer, having denied his request for fresh connection. The present dispute therefore, is not maintainable.

This matter could not be decided in time as the Hon'ble Chairperson took the charge on 20/9/2016 of this Forum and the matter was reheard.

Hence the order.
