Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission, is, constituted u/s. 82 of Electricity Act 2003 (36/2003). Hereinafter for the sake of brevity referred as 'MERC'. This Consumer Grievance Redressal Forum has been established as per the notification issued by MERC i.e. "Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission (Consumer Grievance Redressal Forum & Ombudsman) Regulation 2006” to redress the grievances of consumers vide powers conferred on it by Section 181 read with sub-section 5 to 7 of section 42 of the Electricity Act, (36/2003). Hereinafter it is referred as ‘Regulation’. Further the regulation has been made by MERC i.e. ‘Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission. Hereinafter referred as ‘Supply Code’ for the sake of brevity. Even, regulation has been made by MERC i.e. ‘Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission (Standards of Performance of Distribution Licensees, Period for Giving Supply & Determination of Compensation) Regulations, 2014.’ Hereinafter referred ‘SOP’ for the sake of convenience (Electricity Supply Code and other conditions of supply) Regulations 2014’.

2] This is a short case with respect to refund of security deposit on closure of account and permanent disconnection.

3] As per the application made by consumer on 30/7/2012, the permanent disconnection was made, however, the security deposit was not refunded within time. On 9/5/16, an amount of Rs.38,240/- was refunded to the consumer, after necessary deductions. The consumer claimed the interest at the rate of 18% per annum and also SOP compensation.

4] The consumer relied on the circular and pointed out the section 18.10 therefrom.

5] MSEDCL filed the reply wherein they contended that as per application dated 15/4/15 permanent disconnection was made on the same day. Thereafter an amount of Rs. 38,240/- by cheque was refunded to the C.R. on 9/5/2016 after deducting the arrears. Also interest as per RBI rate was paid amounting to Rs.8,968/-

6] We have heard both the sides. At the outset, the Circular and Para 18.10 is not relevant, in fact it is applicable where a consumer has deposited excess amount of security deposit. The applicant/consumer has contended that the Licensee was required to refund the security deposit within 30 days. There are also SOP Regulation 2014 which speaks about the time period for payment of final dues to the consumer from the date of receipt of application for closure of account. The time period provided for Clause –I cities and Urban areas is 30 days while for Rural areas 45 days. The consumer comes from Ulhasnagar city which is not Class-I city but near to an Urban area. The time period is accordingly considered between 30 days to 45 days and consumer is entitled for simple interest at the rate of 18% per annum and besides that the SOP compensation as provided in the SOP Regulations. 2014.

7] Sofaras amount of deduction of Rs.17,935/- is concerned, the Licensee states that the bill for September 2012 of Rs.18,597.08 was issued by mistake as per MF-I which should have been as per MF-2 which comes to $18600 \times 2 = 37,200/-$ as per revision date 3/10/2012.

This matter could not be decided within time as hearing was going on each and every date and parties wanted to produce some documents and therefore, delay is caused.

Hence the order.

ORDER

2] The Licensee to pay to the consumer simple interest at the rate of 18% per annum on Rs.38,240/- from 1/9/2012 after deducting the amount of interest already paid to the consumer.
