DECISION

The consumer has presented his complaint to restrain MSEDCL from disconnecting the supply.

The respondent MSEDCL appeared and submitted that, the mater is pending before I.G.R.C. and the date of hearing is fixed on 18th August 2012.

Heard Mr. Kapadiya, the representative of the complainant. Heard Mr. Borde, Legal Manager, of GTL.

The representative Mr. Kapadiya submitted that, in view of regulation No.6.5 of MERC, the complaint is tenable.

No doubt the complaint under regulation 6.5 of MERC is tenable provided that, there should be threat of disconnection./ In the present case, Mr. Borde pointed out that, the concern has been already instructed, not to disconnect, till final order is passed. Hence in view of such instruction, it reveals that, there is no threat of disconnection till final order is passed by I.G.R.C. The date of hearing before IGRC is 18.08.2012. In these circumstances, it is not desirable by this Forum to entertain the complaint. This Forum thereby proceed to pass following order.

ORDER

- 01) The complaint is not tenable as matter is pending before IGRC for hearing.
