The consumer Smt.Laxmi w/o Haridas Ingale resident of Yeshvantnagar, Yeravada Pune-411006 applied for residential connection to M.S.E.D.C.L. Pune. According to Smt. Ingale her application was rejected on the ground that the premise in respect of which the application for connection has been made the electricity connection was already given in the name of her father –in-law Kashinath Ingale. The said connection was permanently disconnected in 2006. The outstanding bill in respect of the said meter was Rs. 65,820/- According to her she was not liable to pay the said amount as per Law.

According to MSEDCL as the present consumer is daughter in law of late Mr.Kashinath Ingale was residing in the said premises. MSEDCL contended that consumer is liable to pay electricity charges which remain unpaid by deceased consumer Mr. Kashinath Ingale.

Both sides presented their submissions we persuaded the parties to settle the matter amicably within the legal frame work. Both sides amicably settled the matter and it was agreed that consumer shall pay an amount of Rs.19,420/- to MSEDCL to words previous electricity charges we found that. Contents of settlement are acceptable to both sides and are just and proper. Both sides agreed that amount of electricity charges of Rs.19,420/- be paid in three installments.

ORDER

- i) Complaint is partly allowed.
- ii) M.S.E.D.C.L. is directed to issue electricity connection to consumer by accepting Rs.6, 500/- as 1st. installment.
- iii) The consumer shall be pay remaining amount in two monthly installments of Rs. 6,500/- each.
